(cont)

Proverbs 1:1-33

Then we begin the reading of Solomon's Proverbs; emphasizing the greatness of wisdom. Pay close attention to the general purposes of the book in 1:1-6, and the special note to his son in 1:7-9.

Wed
28 May

Proverbs 2:1 to 4:27

These chapters are addressed to Solomon's son, pleading with him to heed his father's teaching. Of course, much of Solomon's own life was not in harmony with his teaching!

Thursday
29 May

Proverbs 5:1 to 7:27

A large part of this reading is to exhort the "son" (Rehoboam) of Solomon to avoid falling into immorality. Under each of the days we spend reading Proverbs, jot down two or three that are especially helpful in this column.

Friday
30 May

Proverbs 8:1 to 11:31

Now Solomon exalts true wisdom (chapters 8,9) and begins a series of brief proverbs (chapters 10,11).

Saturday
31 Jun

Proverbs 12:1 to 15:33

We continue here with many brief wise sayings.

Sunday
1 Jun

Proverbs 16:1 to 19:29

The short proverbs continue through these chapters.
