

27 Oct – 2 Nov

Monday
27 Oct

- Matthew 14:1-12
- Mark 6:14-29
- Luke 9:7-9

Another of the wicked Herods hears of the work of Jesus and supposes that it is John—risen from the dead! Note also that John died for teaching that there are marriages which must be dissolved in order to please God.

- Matthew 14:13
- Mark 6:30-32
- Luke 9:10
- John 6:1
- Matthew 14:14-21
- Mark 6:33-44
- Luke 9:11-17
- John 6:2-14
- Matthew 14:22-36
- Mark 6:45-56
- John 6:15-21

The twelve return from their mission and they all go to a deserted place.

This is the place where we learn about the Lord's walking on the water.

Tuesday
28 Oct

- John 6:22-71
- Matthew 15:1-20
- Mark 7:1-23
- Matthew 15:21-28
- Mark 7:24-30

On the next day, Jesus claims, "I am the bread of life." Here is one of Christ's strongest lessons against the teachings of the Jewish "clergy."

Now He heals the daughter of the Canaanite woman.

Wednesday
29 Oct

- Matthew 15:29-38
- Mark 7:31 to 8:9
- Matthew 15:39 to 16:12
- Mark 8:10-26
- Matthew 16:13-20
- Mark 8:27-30
- Luke 9:18-21
- Matthew 16:21-28
- Mark 8:27-30
- Luke 9:18-21

He heals a deaf man with a speech impediment and feeds 4000.

He teaches again about the leaven (influence) of the Pharisees and Sadducees and heals a blind man.

Here Jesus promises to establish His church/kingdom (also called "body," "temple," "household," "army," "vineyard," etc.) after the famous confession by Peter. Immediately, Jesus begins to make predictions—with details—of His coming passion.

Thursday
30 Oct

- Matthew 17:1-13
- Mark 9:2-13
- Luke 9:28-36

This has to be one of the most memorable events of all time: the transfiguration of our Lord. Peter speaks of it again as his life drew to its end (II Peter 1:16-18).

- Matthew 17:14-21
- Mark 9:14-29
- Luke 9:37-43
- Matthew 17:22-23
- Mark 9:43-45
- Matthew 17:24-27
- Matthew 18:1-14
- Mark 9:33-50
- Luke 9:46-50

Jesus casts a demon out of a boy.

Christ predicts His passion again.

The Lord teaches a lesson by paying taxes.
Christ teaches the innocence (not the inherited depravity!) of children and commands that we be like they are.

Friday
31 Oct

- Matthew 18:15-35
- John 7:2-9
- Luke 9:51-56
- John 7:10
- Luke 9:57-62
- John 7:11-52
- John 7:53 to 8:11

Here is a lengthy lesson about forgiveness.
Jesus gets advice from His brothers, who did not yet believe in Him.

He makes a private journey to Jerusalem.

Jesus speaks to three—one by one—about following Him.

At the temple, the Messiah teaches about the source of His doctrine, leading to divisions in the multitude.
This is the passage about the woman caught in adultery. We, too, should obey the command to, “Go, and sin no more.”

Saturday
1 Nov

- John 8:12-59
- John 9:1-41
- John 10:1-21

The I AM makes still another claim, “I am the Light of the world.” Note verse 58 particularly.

Immediately, “the Light of the world” gives sight to a man blind from birth (he was older than Jesus!). The man proceeds to demonstrate great spiritual strength.
Now the I AM claims to be “the Door” and “the Good Shepherd.” We all ought to mark verses 17 and 18 — and spend the rest of our lives being thankful for them...

Sunday
2 Nov

- Luke 10:1-24
- Luke 10:25-37
- Luke 10:38-42
- Luke 11:1-13
- Luke 13:10-21
- John 10:22-42
- Luke 13:22-35

Here we read of the sending out of the 70 (two by two) and His speech about their work.

At this time, a discussion with a lawyer leads to the giving of the parable of the good Samaritan.

Jesus visits Martha and Mary.

He teaches the disciples to pray.

Jesus heals a woman in a synagogue on the Sabbath and then puts His adversaries to shame.

An audience correctly understands His claim when He says, “I and the Father are one.” But they reject the evidence He offers—as usual.

Jesus answers a question about how many are going to be saved, and then receives a warning about Herod.
